CONCIERGE TIPS

Today's fast-paced competitive business environment is a perfect setting for Concierge Unlimited, Inc. We rescue and relieve busy professionals of many distracting demands and chores by giving focused attention to their many various needs. Whether the task is to obtain same-day tickets to a sold-out show, secure the right table at a heavily-booked restaurant or coordinate a corporate weekend retreat, Concierge Unlimited, Inc. is here to assist at a moment's notice.

Janice Burnham, a principal at the accounting firm Cooper & Lybrand, uses the service to do her juggling. Her job requires that she entertain clients in various cities. When asked why she uses the service she stated "They save me time and they elevate my access to things I could not get on my own."

Access, for instance, to hotel reservations in cities booked due to conventions, or opening-night theatre seats when her parents come to town. Once during a tour by Cirque du Soleil, she promised clients in Chicago, Las Vegas and San Francisco that she'd see the New Age circus with all of them. Concierge Unlimited, Inc. arranged for all of the above and made dinner reservations. "It is a service, one of those wonderful things you do not usually find in today's world," she says. A personal concierge is a modern timesaving amenity for keeping up with the fast pace of our modern lives. Join in with the top to stay on the top. Call Concierge Unlimited, Inc. and consider it done. We are...
